

CCMR Indicator: Graduate, Completed IEP & Workforce Readiness

Accommodations Vs. Modifications:

Accommodations a student must demonstrate the same level of content mastery as other nondisabled peers, but do so in a way that takes the disability into consideration. It does not alter the performance standards for the general education course.

Modifications alters the content and performance standards that the student is expected to attain. A reduction of the amount or complexity of the required knowledge and skills. Lowering the performance standards of the class to give the student access to content that has been simplified.
