Welcome & Introduction Dr. Darlene Rogers

Time 8:30 am – 5 minutes

Keynote Speaker Dr. Cheryl Chase, Ph.D.

Cheryl Chase, Ph.D. is a licensed clinical psychologist in private practice in Independence, Ohio, a suburb of Cleveland. She specializes in the diagnostic and neuropsychological assessment of various conditions impacting children, adolescents and young adults including ADHD, pervasive developmental disorders, learning differences and emotional concerns. In addition to her clinical practice, Dr. Chase is an accomplished speaker at the local and national levels, leading workshops on such timely topics as executive functioning, differentiated instruction and creative ways to support those who struggle in school. She is a professor at John Carroll University and serves Lawrence School as a staff psychologist.

Her down-to-earth and often humorous approach to learning makes her a favorite with educators, parents and children alike. Dr. Chase is an active member of the American Psychological Association, the International Dyslexia Association, and Children and Adults with ADD (CHADD). She has devoted her career to helping children reach their fullest potential.
