PEIMS Foreword

The following document was developed by the PEIMS Division of TEA to assist districts with the reporting requirements for Limited English Proficient (LEP).

Chapter 89 states that English Language Learner (ELL) is a person who is in the process of acquiring English and has another language as the first native language. The terms English language learners and limited English proficient student are used interchangeably [§89.1203(1)].

In order to achieve a comprehensive understanding of the progression of information contained in the document, it is recommended that it be read from beginning to end in its entirety.

Coordination with Other Programs

The language proficiency assessment committee (LPAC) process does not work in isolation. The continuous focus on the student often necessitates coordination and collaboration between and among other programs that also work with the English Language Learner (ELL). The decisions of the LPAC will have an impact on the overall instructional program for the individual ELL. It is important that the LPAC receive all of the necessary information relating to the student's needs, the student's performance, language, and cultural background, and the student's participation in special programs. Collaboration among instructional personnel who have been trained to identify the needs of ELLs and who must implement timely interventions is essential in maintaining coherent instructional program that will lead to the improvement of student performance.

Some of the programs that are available to the ELL may include:

Summer School	Special Education
Gifted and Talented	Dyslexia
Before and After School Tutorial	Even Start
At-Risk Programs	Section 504
Extra-Curricular (student clubs, UIL, etc)	Optional Extended Year
Community-Based Programs	Newcomer/Immigrant Programs
Career and Technical Education (CTE)	Migrant (Building Bridges, Project SMART, etc)

Written documentation becomes invaluable for collaborating and coordinating programs for the ELL. Information provided to PEIMS must be correct and timely. Parent input and notification is necessary at every phase of the LPAC process. The Title III program requires that parents become critical partners in the placement and monitoring of the student's instructional program. The LPAC is not referring agent, but it can serve to identify available programs for the student as it deliberates throughout the year.
