

Dyslexia Coordinators' Meeting

October 4, 2017 - Workshop # 66946

Starr Room, Region 1 ESC

1:00pm-4:00pm

AGENDA

- Welcome
- TEC 28.006
- Update 1: HB 1886
- Update 2: Dave Richards, Section 504 Updates (October 11, 2017)
- Frequently Asked Questions on Dyslexia
- Tiffany Sunday: How Dyslexics Will Rule the Future

Guest Speaker:

Tiffany Sunday (Author & Entrepreneur)

Tiffany Sunday is Director of Business Development, Southwest U.S. for Scanning Pens Inc., a leading global distributor of electronic pen scanners. She is the author of Dyslexia's Competitive Edge and You Posted What!? Her 2015 TEDx Talk has inspired dyslexics to use their talents as an advantage. She is completing two new books to be published the spring of 2018 – How Dyslexics Will Rule the Future and her anticipated first fiction novel, Never Again, She Said. Her articles have appeared in The Dyslexia Connection, Launch DFW, Noodle Education, Dallas Business Journal, and more. Tiffany has also appeared on local television and radio shows and in news publications across the country.

Section 504 & IDEA Update

Presented by Dave Richards, Esq.

Intended Audience:

504 Coordinators, Principals, Administrators, SPED Directors

Attorney Dave Richards (Richards, Lindsay & Martín, LLP) will provide an overview of Section 504 and IDEA and a complete picture of the FAPE process, from child find and eligibility, to creation of the Section 504 and IEP plan. Participants will also learn about discipline of students with disabilities, disability harassment, and the right to equal participation in extracurricular and nonacademic services.

Workshop # 63509

October 11, 2017

8:30 am—4:00 pm

Region One ESC

1900 W. Schuinor

Edinburg, TX

Ft. McIntosh/Ft. Ringgold Rooms

There is no fee for this session and 6 CPEs will be provided.

Register online at www.esc1.net/staffdevelopment

Contact Tere Longoria, Lead Program Assistant, at (956) 984-6206 with any questions.

