

Region One Education Service Center

Library Services and Instructional Resources

Guest speaker, Gretchen McCord, will help you truly understand how copyright applies to your job on a daily basis. You will walk away feeling more confident in your ability to assess fair use in real-life situations, including as applied to modern technology such as makerspaces, 3-D printing, and Internet resources like YouTube. We'll discuss real-world examples, and you'll have plenty of time for Q&A.
