

Brownsville Extension Office

Making the Reading Writing Connection

Making the Reading Writing Connection

WS # 91675

Reading and writing are more interdependent than once thought and students' literacy development is dependent on this interconnection between reading and writing. During this session participants will learn ways to make their Language Arts instruction more effective by intertwining reading and writing. Teachers will take away pre-writing and writing activities for their students that will incorporate literature, mentor texts and reading responses.

T-TESS/T-PESS:

Dimension 1.4 Activities, Dimension 1.1 Standards and Alignment

Region One Education Service Center

Division of Instructional, School Improvement, and College Readiness Support

Contact Information

Jodi-Beth Moreno, ELA/R Specialist
Brownsville Extension Office
405 East Levee St.
Brownsville, Texas 78520
(956) 984-6191
jmoreno@esc1.net

Gloria Perez, Program Assistant
Brownsville Extension Office
405 East Levee St.
Brownsville, Texas 78520
(956) 984-6191
glperez@esc1.net

Region One
EDUCATION SERVICE CENTER
"Students First"

1900 W. Schunior St.
Edinburg, Texas 78541
Tel (956) 984-6000

Session Date:

$125

Saturday, November 3, 2018

Rivera High School
6955 Ruben Torres Blvd. | Brownsville, Texas 78521
8:30 AM - 3:30 PM

Audience:

English Language Arts Teachers
Grades 7-12